

-tasogare-

RG1299 -tasogare- 黄昏

Kiriko is a technique of making cuts in the surface of glass using a grinder. In fact, it is a very old technique, that has been around for about 200 years. Kiriko is a technique of making cuts in the surface of glass using a grinder.

Tenma Kiriko is characterized by carving the surface of the glass into a lens shape. This is a traditional craft from Osaka

Material	brass + glass
Finish	Oxidized gold
Length	L=740mm(29-1/8in)
Center to Center	P1=300mm(11-13/16in), P2=300mm(11-13/16in)
Projection	97mm(3-13/16in)
Caution	As this is a glass product, please avoid strong impact. Please also refrain from using it outdoors.

Romante